Habitat for Humanity®

July 2018

Dear Friends of Habitat:

As this is our Silver Anniversary and we celebrate 25 years of serving others, Macomb County Habitat for Humanity wanted to do something extra special. We chose to create an evening of unending fun for the guests who will join us and I hope you will consider sponsoring this unbelievable evening to remember.

The Passing Zone, known all over the world for their amazing, juggling skills, will entertain us the evening of Friday, November 9th. Greeting us at the door, will also be the Detroit Flywheel, another group of talented acrobats whose skills will leave us questioning how muscles can be that flexible and strong! Everyone will be managed by our celebrity ringmaster, Ralphe Armstrong, who has played bass with every major musician, group, or entertainer in the world. His humor (and ability to pack the house) made him the perfect choice for the center spot.

Also joining us will be five influential Honorary Co-Chairs. These are individuals who are leaders in our community and whose influence is wide-reaching. We thank Pam Lavers, Macomb County Deputy County Executive; Mashell Carissimi, Owner, JMC Electrical Contractors; Nancy Faught, Executive Vice President, Hubbell, Roth, and Clark, Inc.; Lisa Taylor, Managing Business Consultant, Blue Cross Blue Shield; and Jonathon Munson, Regional Market Leader, Thrivent Financial for supporting us in that role!

It is a great achievement to reach 25 years of service. Many nonprofits do not achieve this goal. To spend an evening with all of you as a way to celebrate is really one of the best ways we can thank you for supporting us and helping us reach this milestone.

Please review the sponsorship information and let me know if I can answer any questions.

I hope you will join us on Friday November 9, 2018 as we laugh and celebrate the past 25 years of building homes, communities, and hope to the community.

With every best wish,
